

Hand Planted Forest

Name:

Welcome to the Tillamook Forest Center! Follow the directions below to help you explore the forest and discover its hidden treasures. You will have fun and learn something new!

Find the Mural of Growing Trees

After the fires, millions of dead trees covered the landscape. What had to be done first before new seedlings could go in the ground?

How much money was authorized to replant the Burn?

How many seeds were dropped by helicopter?

What prevented the young seedlings from growing well once they were in the ground?

Once the dead trees were removed, what critical role did the Oregon Department of Forestry play in the rehabilitation of the Burn?

What was the tree species used to replant the Tillamook Burn?

In what year did Governor Tom McCall rename the Burn to the Tillamook State Forest?

Draw a picture of a tool that was used to plant trees.

Find the Audio Station: Tree Planting Stories

Listen to the story of the student tree planter. What role did the 8th grade boys have?

What role did the 7th grade girls have?

What did the first graders do?

Find the Tree Planter's Tent

Why were camps established for tree planters?

Look at the objects in the tent. Name three things that kept tree planters warm and dry.

How many seedlings were planted in the Tillamook Burn area?

Three types of groups helped the Department of Forestry plant trees. Who were they?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What was difficult about planting seedlings?

Find the Changing Landscape Theater

Find "Results of Reforestation". How many years did it take to replant the entire forest?

Find "Tillamook Forest Today". What year was the first tree harvest?

Name two wildlife species that benefit from the new trees today.

Name three types of recreation that occur on the forest today.